Head for the Hills

It was late August, yellow ribbons and the American flag were in - flag burning was out. Whitney Houston's rendition of the American Anthem was destined to be on the top 40's list. America and the world turned their eyes on the Middle East, crossed their fingers, held their breathe, and waited for a war. The only thing Baldwin students could do was hang onto their friends, party like there was no tomorrow and Head for the Hills.

Apple Day

Dearly beloved... we are gathered here today to invite you to this day called Apple Day. Apple 90 it's a party it's a mighty fun time but we're here to tell you... there's something else...the morning after...a day of neverending happiness...guys from all around...day and night...so when you call up that guy from W&L you know the one... General makes it alright...ask him how much of the night is left...how much of the wine baby... 'cause at this school...things are much harder than on Apple Day...but this night...you're on your own...So if security tries to take your cup...go crazy...make another one.

If you don't like...what classes are about...take a look around... 'cause tomorrow you're out... so come on ladies... it's Apple Day...get yourself excited...real men on their way...Ah, Ah...Farmville, USA.

Gonna let the pressure break us down...oh no...let's go...let's go crazy...it's Apple Day.

New Potato's here...cadet's are out of jail and they're looking for a place to stay...let's gp.

We're all excited...don't know why...maybe it's cause we're all on high!

What to do...what to do...what's it all...what's it all for...better party now before 300 people come knockin' on your door.

Gonna let the pressure break us down...oh no...let's go...let's go crazy...IT'S APPLE DAY.

sung to Let's Go Crazy, by Prince

Camille Shearouse paints the Beta Bridge at UVA with a sense of purpose to announce Apple Day.

Tricia Clardy, Meg Kluttz and Carmen Rodriguez the sophomore class officers.

Veronica Vicente and Staci Buford paint the Beta Bridge to announce Apple Day.

Every class from freshman to seniors take part in the festivities of Apple Day in the courtyard of Rose Terrace.

JR DADS

Never one thing & seldom one person can make for a success. It takes a number of them merging into one perfect whole.

Marie Dressler

Junior Dads Day is a special event that highlights the Junior Class. This tradition started in 1969. The main event of Junior Dads is the receiving of the class ring from someone who has or is playing a significant role in her life, traditionally the father.

The class ring is the symbol of true upperclassman status. Because of the size of the class of '92, this years Junior Dads formal was held at the Ingleside Inn in Verona.

Kim Lea, escorted by her father, awaits her turn to receive her class ring.

A group of Juniors and their dates enjoy the festivities of the formal Junior dads night held at the Ingleside Inn.

Erin Rowe waits with her father to receive her ring in front of the class of '92 and invited guests.

Act To Follow

The 1990-91 theater season opened with the world premier production of 'O Susannah' a historical drama that focused on two women, Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Susan Brownell Anthony who led the battle that secured the ballot for women. This play also honored the 70th anniversary of the 19th admendment to the Constitution giving women the right to vote. 'O Susannah' was challenging for the acting troupe however, it was indeed successful.

The season continued with the production of 'The Mikado'. This Gilbert & Sullivan play takes place in a Japan that never existed. A standout for this play was the beautiful costumes and the well directed music.

William Shakespears 'Loves Labor Lost' provided a wit filled Rick Seyford performance. The acting excelled and kept the audience captive with well executed comedy. This play demonstrated the need for a generosity of spirit and the power of the spoken word.

William Mastrosimones' play 'Extremities' set forth a turn-table, highly dramatic play dealing with the physical and mental repercussions resulting from the act of rape. An unusual opportunity is afforded a victim to assault her attacker and in the final moments of revenge she realizes that he too, is human with faulting characteristics. Personifying a challenging question, is revenge actually that sweet?

The Mikado cast of school-girls wave their authentic japanese fans as Yum-Yum, played by Melanie Madison, is fussed over by her sisters played by Genie Gratto and Caroline Marriott.

Nanki-Poo And Yum-Yum played by Brian Holsopple and Melanie Madison woo each other as Ulysses Desportes or Pooh-Bah, Lord High Executioner of Titipu, cringes beside them on the set of The Mikado.

Melanie Madison and Linda Livingston portray Susan B. Anthony and Elizabeth Cady Stanton. Two very important women in the history of women's suffrage in O Susannah

Linda Livingston as Don Adriano chats with Anthony Dull played by Susan Albanowski in Love's Labour's Lost.

Love's Labour's Lost's Boyet portrayed by Caroline Marriott fervently sings for approval from four maidens played by Stephanie Leftwich, Vickie Jo Einselen, Andrea Nelson, and Shawn McCarty in the King of Navarre's Park.

Kathryn Smith looks on as Francie Huffstetler threatens her would be rapist played by Rick Seyford in Extremities.

Faculty

One of the greatest things about Mary Baldwin College is not only the close ties among the student body, but also the availability of the faculty to the students. The closeness between the professors and the students is due mainly to the low faculty to student ratio. But Baldwin students are not limited to the availability and care shown them by the professor on campus, but by each individual member of the staff and faculty at Mary Baldwin. From the coaches to the deans to the president and to the mailroom, physical plant, the dining hall, the health center, the computer center, the Sena Center, the writing center, and the Learning Skills Center.

With all of the kindness shown them by the faculty and staff the students can not help but feel at home.

H.W.Beecher

Mary Baldwin has never been known for producing million dollar athletes or for winning national titles. Nevertheless, the victories of the MBC athletes were never easy and they were never cheap. Dedication and hours of hard work paid off for the Baldwin athletes in the 1990-91 school year. Many of the athletes were recognized for its success.

Looking back to the hard work of each athlete and each team brings to mind the words of President Tyson. "At Mary

Baldwin College women work hard and they play hard...and they work hard to play hard."

WINNING SERVE

According to Volleyball coach Sharon Spalding, "the MBC Squirrels were the best woman's college volleyball team in the ODAC conference this year." Although, the team had more losses than wins, the team members played well together and encouraged each other.

Two of the biggest challenges this year the team had to face was tough competition while learning how to play as a team. Another hurdle was inexperience as seven of the team members had never played on this team and it took some adjustment for the players to get acquainted with the required team work and field communication.

"the players quickly developed good working skills and successfully acquired an excellent player- team work attitude."

Sharon Spalding
Volleyball Coach

"these challenges were overcome," noted Spalding, "as the players quickly developed good working skills, they successfully aquired an excellent player team work attitude."

Teamwork made these young women athletes exhibit an excellent playing image as they reached the semi finals at the Women's College Tournament in Salem, NC.

With most of the team members returning next year and the solid performance foundation established the 1991-92 season will be anticipated as the best ever for the MBC spikers.

Basketball

SIGHT- FEEL - YES was the motto for the 1990-91 basketball season. With seven new faces and three returning players, the team could see victory. The 55-34 win over Randolph - Macon Women's College allowed the team to feel the victory.

And YES, the 1990-1991 basketball team was victorious, although not in the amount of wins. The first victory came in height. Something the team has lacked for many years. The second victory came in depth. Baldwin saw seven new faces with talent ready to explode. With the new and returning players combined, the team was allowed to scrimmage five on five which had not taken place since the dark ages of King Gym.

The third victory came in motivation and determination. No matter what the score, the team fought tooth and nail to the last second.

The 91-92 season looks extremely promising with nine experienced and dedicated players returning to the squad. - GOOD LUCK!!

What do blue skies, the hot beating sun, rain, bag lunches, snow, and time laps have in common: MBC Lacrosse.

The 1990-91 team saw eight new faces with great potential. The infamous pre-season workshop enhanced the team skills as well as provided the players with confidence. Co-Captain's Kathy Seraphin and Caroline Oden led the team through an unforgettable season. the first part consisted of hardwork, hours of concentration, and only two wins out of the first eight games. Things did not look good. Then . . . the Nut Shack started to work its magic.

The squirrels were unstoppable winning their last seven games and the first Lacrosse Invitational hosted by none other but the Squirrels themselves.

DANCE

"To describe Mary Baldwin's Dance Groupe over the past three years is to recall changes, accomplishments, and growth. The groupe has continually reached its potential and we've supported one another through the best and worst of times.

The 1990-91 ensemble is made up of twelve members and five choreographers. Some of us have been dancing for what seems forever while others have just begun. However, we all thoroughly enjoy the grace and movement of our hobby - dancing.

Annually we entertain the college community with a spring performance which was performed in the dance studio in the Physical Activities Center. With in those parameters wondrous ideas have been created and shared. Many of the inspirational movements began with our new instructor, Denise McClanahan."

Tennis

The 1990-91 tennis team was lead by a new coach, Bonnie Nedermier. Not only did she drive them to a victorious season, but also to some memorable moments.

The players had to work especially hard during both early morning practices and late night matches due to the extensive snacks and dinners they came to enjoy on the road and at the coach's house.

Three star freshmen joined the team to help add not only talent, but also increase the infamous personality the team is known for. It is always a pleasure to acknowledge those seniors that have given to the team for four years.

Collier Andress and Kitty Talbot were honored to receive signet rings for their four years of dedication to athletics at Mary Baldwin College.

Senior Mary Tucker Thrift gets her body in alignment with the ball for a powerful serve to her opponent.

Collier Andress, an extraordinary senior tennis player for MBC has full concentration on the ball which she will inevitably slam into the opponent's court.

For My Daughter Desha Prashad

When you were just a baby, saying your first words
or taking those first important steps,
I knew then you were someone special
There was a sparkle in your eyes and a spirit of wonder that lit up your whole face.

As you grew into a teenager,
that energy and enthusiasm
just grew bigger and brighter.
Your questions and discoveries
kept me challenged and alert,
and made me feel a little younger myself.
But through all your changes,
we always had a deep bond between us.

Now that you've grown into a woman,
that bond is still strong and lasting and I cherish our relationship
more than ever before.
You were special to me then,
and you're even more special to me now.

I LOVE YOU,
MOM

CONGRATULATIONS, honey, you've done it! We're so very proud of you!
All our love, Mom, Jim, and Bill

Congratulations, Lori

You finally caught the big one!

Love Mom, Dad, Steve, and Andy.

Congratulations CINDY!

We are proud of you.

We love you,

Thank you, Bobs for "holding down the fort" And thank you for the daffodils; You are a good egg.

Lori- four and three and two and one!; so that is what sisters are for.

Gina and Bowman (Jennifer, Lori, Bobs, Sarah, Susie, & El);

"They all went off to discover the Pole,

Owl and Piglet and Rabbit and all;

It's a Thing you Discover, as I've been tole

By Owl and Piglet and Rabbit and all.

Eeyore, Christopher Robin and Pooh

And Rabbit's relations all went too-

And where the Pole was none of them knew...

Sing Hey! for Owl and Rabbit and all!"

A.A. Milne "The World of Pooh"

GOOD LUCK, guys - I'll miss you.

A HYMN FOR MARY BALDWIN

Scandinavian Folk Song

arr. by Gordon Page

To these halls where Wisdom reckons,
To these hills where Beauty dwells;
Where the search for Learning beckons,
Where its tumult ever swells,

Here we bring our childhood visions
Stirring in the quest for truth;
Here we forge our mind's decisions
Tempered by the faith of youth.

Friendship, honor, sorrow, laughter
Are the ways by which we learn,
Knowledge first, then Wisdom after
Love that seeks not for return.

When we reach our last tomorrow
Of our days in class, on field,
We will know how we must borrow,
Mary Baldwin, from thy yield.
